

November 2007 - News Flash 1

Book Signing

Just a reminder that on Tuesday, November 20, from 6:30-7:25, IM James Rizzitano will be at the club to present his new book

Chess Explained: The Queen's Gambit Declined.

This is his 4th chess publication. You can read about it at www.gambitbooks.com/books/ceqgd.html

Four Rounds left to play in the Stanley Crowe Memorial

The Stanley Crowe Memorial event which started on November 6th is a six round event. There are four rounds still remaining to play, two in November and two in December. You may still enter into this event so you won't have to wait till January for the next slow time control event. If you enter on November 20th you will be given two half point byes putting you only one point behind the leaders.

Visit our Newsletter Archive page to read this months newsletter and news flashes

http://www.metrowestchess.org/Community/History/News/Top_Newsletter.htm or look for the Newsletter link on the left edge of the home page under Community, then Club.

www.MetroWestChess.org