New FAQ:

Many of our current players may not be familiar with rules related to taking last round Byes when prizes are being offered for an event. Our club hasn't offered prizes since we closed for Covid in 2000, so the rules we have been using since re-opening are the clubs general rules for Byes. Now that prizes are being reintroduced, we need to help everyone understand the "additional rules" that are in effect for our events with prizes. Players who play in major Weekend Events are very likely familiar with such rules and our rules are similar but relatively more relaxed as our events span weeks not days.

We have prepared a new FAQ to reintroduce the Club rules related to Byes, Re-Entries and Late Entries and in particular rules related to events with Prizes.

If you will be playing in any of our events that offer prizes, such as this months event, it is important you understand the rules related to last round byes.
