

June 2007 - News Flash 2

Week two of Jorge Sammour-Hasbun Lectures

This Tuesday is the second lecture in this series on endgames. Jorge will explore how to recognize good and bad endgames as part of your middle game strategy, and techniques for winning or saving common endgames using tactics, fortresses, and king placement. Jorge will also present some illustrative examples of tactical and positional play.

Visit our Newsletter Archive page to read this months newsletter and news flashes

http://www.metrowestchess.org/Community/History/News/Top_Newsletter.htm

or look for the Newsletter link on the left edge of the home page under Community, then Club.

www.MetroWestChess.org