

View this email in your browser

MetroWest Chess Club

Largest Chess Club in New England

Serving Boston's MetroWest Chess Community Since 1983

Index of Topics:

- The Club re-opens next week !!!
- Round 3 - Lecture and Book signing
- The Masters: A New Monthly Regional Event

The Club re-opens in less than a week !!!

The club re-opens with the first round of it's first event in since 2020, next Wednesday, July 5th. Yes, the day after the 4th of July.

Get your account at NACHessHub set up and enter the event now, before you forget over the Holiday Weekend.

The MCC home page has links to all the things you need to know to start playing at the club. Please read the materials on the home page carefully.

<https://www.MetroWestChess.org>

Round 3 - Lecture and Book signing

IM Jim Rizzitano will give a lecture on his most recent Gambit Publications book Modern Chess Opening Repertoire for White. Jim will have this book and several of his other books available for purchase and he will sign copies.

- Round 3: Wednesday, July 19th
 - Lecture: 6:45 pm to 7:15 pm

The Masters: A New Monthly Regional Event

The Future Masters Chess Academy introduces a new monthly Tournament to the Eastern Mass region:

- The Masters
 - The event takes place in Burlington, Mass. on Saturday evenings.
 - All ratings are welcome.
 - The July event will honor Jeff Caruso who was a long time Tournament Director of the Billerica Chess Club

Details and Registration are available on the MACA site: The Masters